Get Your Tickets For The Rose Bowl!

The 98th annual Rose Bowl will be held once again in Pasadena, California on Monday, January 2, 2012. One of the most famous college football games, this amazing event starts with the Tournament of Roses Parade and ends with the traditional showdown between the best teams from the Big Ten and the Pac-12 conferences, two of the nation's top conferences.

This year's extravaganza is a must-see event, as the theme will revolve around honoring the nation's wounded military personnel. Finding these tickets can be nearly impossible to get, so it is best to act fast to see this incredible game before tickets become sold out!

A late-season loss by the Oregon Ducks kept them from making BCS Championship and should allow them to punch their Rose Bowl tickets. The Ducks likely opponent is either the Wisconsin Badgers or the Michigan State Spartans. Oregon will enter the game as the favorite against either opponent. Led by a high-flying offense, the Ducks have the speed and quarterback in Darron Thomas to make it difficult for either opponent. Wisconsin is poised to present a strong challenge, thanks to QB Russell Wilson. Michigan State has the team speed necessary to compete with Oregon, but lacks the consistent quarterback play.

Whether or not who signifies the Big Ten, this competition is one of the top holiday activities. Continually a sell-out, Pasadena is going to be rocking once again as a couple of the nation's prime conventions restore their rivalry in a showdown that gets closer to the 100th anniversary.

If ever the clash be regarding Oregon and Wisconsin or the Ducks versus the Spartans, you can be certain that such tickets will probably be difficult to find as followers flock to California to witness altogether the Rose Bowl Parade and one of the greatest activities within the history of college football.
